

BALANCE

" A state of equilibrium or parity."

"The Army's responsibility is to create an environment where families and family members prosper and realize their potential. Each of us has a part to play in this partnership."

*- General John A. Wickham
Chief of Staff of the Army
White Paper 1983: The Army Family*

Army Family Action Plan:

The Voice of the Army Community and the Action of Army Leaders

Army Family Action Plan

*Through the Army Family Action Plan process.
Army demographic groups identify and elevate Quality of Life issues that lead to program, policy and legislative changes.*

Since 1984:

*107 changes to national legislation
154 revised DoD or Army regulations
173 improvements to programs and services*

Army Family Covenant

Our commitments:

Quality of Life commensurate with Quality of Service

A strong, supportive environment where Families can thrive

Partnerships with Army Families that enhance their strength and resilience.

Soldier Family Action Plan

An integrated approach to make the Army Family Covenant a reality:

- Improve Soldier and Family housing*
- Increase the quality and access to Army health care*
- Standardize and fully fund existing Family programs and services*
- Improve awareness and accessibility to Family programs and services*
- Expand education and employment opportunities for Family members*

The Army Family Covenant: The Partnership Endures

Kenneth O. Preston
Sergeant Major of the Army

George W. Casey, Jr.
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

Pete Geren
Secretary of the Army

LTG Robert Wilson
Assistant Chief of Staff for Installation Management
Proponent for the Army Family Action Plan and the Soldier and Family Action Plan

For more information: <http://www.hqda.army.mil/acsimweb>